Regaining Freedom of Mind Recovery Workshop

13th & 14th Oct 2018

This 'weekend workshop' is for ex-group members only, and not family or friends. If you have left an abusive group or religion, this weekend is for you! Places are limited and numbers will be deliberately kept low to enable personal interaction. The weekend is non - religious and accepting of all belief systems.

Facilitators:

Tore Klevjer is a registered counsellor, educator, consultant and former member of a controversial group. Tore has been involved with counselling and education on the topic of religious extremism for many years and comes with an inside knowledge of the cult experience.

Mary Janetzki is a Registered Psychologist and the Director of South East Psychology in Brisbane Queensland. Mary brings firsthand experience, and is uniquely positioned to provide support to anyone (including ex-members and families) who has been negatively impacted by high demand destructive groups. She also runs a monthly informal support group for ex-cult members (Conditions Apply).

Topics discussed typically include:

- The nature of psychological manipulation and abuse
- Conditions of thought reform programs
- General recovery needs of former members
- Critical thinking
- Relationships and intimacy
- Post-traumatic stress disorder
- Boundaries
- Decision-making
- Re-establishing trust in yourself and others
- Dependency issues
- The grieving process
- Reintegration and identity issues
